WIND RIVER FAMILY CAMP

In Fremont County, Wyoming

June 18-25, 2022

Building lasting foundations through the love of Jesus Christ

From the Directors:

“Foundations for Nations is a ministry dedicated to the Northern Arapaho and Eastern Shoshone located on the Wind River Reservation in Wyoming. The Native Americans have often been called the forsaken and forgotten people, yet God has not forgotten them. We are called to the Native Americans to show them the unconditional love of God, where broken treaties have betrayed them and history has cast them aside. We plan to conduct outreach programs, provide essential needs, teach life skills, discipleship and mentoring. Through the grace of God we plan to help restore their honor as the host people of this great land.

Our vision is to build a mission center called Cornerstone Ranch, a safe and positive environment for the Native youth and families. Cornerstone Ranch will have a church, an outreach center, and a mission center for those who want to come and do a short-term missions trip. Sports camps, sewing and cooking classes, VBS, after school programs, bible studies, and weekly church services are on the list of ministries offered.”

Wind River Reservation is the 7th largest reservation in the United States. It is located in the beautiful state of Wyoming. It is home to 8,177 Northern Arapaho and 3,737 Eastern Shoshone First Nations people. We have seen first-hand the challenges that this reservation faces.

- 75% of Native homes are affected by alcoholism.
- Suicide is 2½ times higher than the national rate.
- 95% of women and girls and 70% of boys have experienced sexual abuse.
- 85% of the natives are unemployed.
- 50% of youth drop out of school.

Sherwood Oaks Partnership

Sherwood Oaks has partnered with ministries to the White Mountain Apache, the Lakota Sioux, and now the Wind River Arapaho and Shoshone First Nations people. As we serve, we learn about the deep heritage of the native people of our country and form lasting friendships with them.

This Family Camp experience allows us to share unforgettable, life-changing moments with our children, while serving together. What might God want to teach you and your family as you reach out to meet the needs of these beautiful people?
